

POLICE ATTACK

A Large Gathering of University Students in Barcelona.

The Officers Were Met With a Volley of Stones and Other Missiles.

A Charge Was Made and the Students Retreated—Subsequently the Students Were Again Attacked, a Fierce Fight Ensued in Which Many Are Hurt.

BARCELONA, March 5.—A large number of students carrying banners assembled Wednesday morning at the doors of the university, where they were addressed by several speakers. The police attempted to disperse the gathering but were resisted by the students who met the officers with volleys of stones and other missiles. A charge was ordered and the officers advanced upon the students who retired, and took refuge within the university building, closing the doors in the face of the police. The latter finally forced an entrance in the rear of the building, but were met by the rector of the university, who ordered them to leave the premises at once. The police retired, and the students emerged, when they were again attacked by the officers, and a fierce fight ensued, at the height of which a party of mounted gendarmes arrived and were greeted with cheers by the students.

The commander of the gendarmes ordered the students to disperse, which they did upon his promise that they should be protected against the police. In the encounter with the officers many persons were injured.

GOV. GREENHALGE,

Massachusetts' Chief Executive, Dead—Short Sketch of His Life.

LOWELL, Mass., March 5.—Gov. Greenhalge died at 12:30 Thursday morning. Frederick Thomas Greenhalge was born in Clifshire, Eng., July 10, 1842. He came to this country with his father, Wm. Greenhalge, who went to Lowell in 1844. He passed through the grammar and high schools of that city and entered Harvard college. In March, 1863, he began the study of law and was admitted to the Middlesex bar in 1865. In 1880 and 1881 he was elected Mayor of Lowell by large majorities. In 1884 he was sent as a delegate to the republican national convention and in 1885 he was elected to the legislature in a democratic district. In 1888 he was chosen a member of the 51st congress. Mr. Greenhalge at once took high rank as a debater and won high praise from his party associates by his conduct of contested election cases.

He was elected governor of Massachusetts to succeed Gov. Russell in 1893 and was re-elected in 1894 and 1895.

HIDDEN OBJECTS

Photographed With the Aid of an Ordinary Horse Shoe Magnet.

BALTIMORE, March 5.—Prof. Wm. C. A. Hamet, of the department of physics of the Maryland state normal school, claims to have secured perfect photographs of hidden objects, with the aid of an ordinary horse shoe magnet. The results of his experiments, he claims, are far superior to those attained through the use of the cathode rays, in that he secured a perfect photograph of the objects, light and shade included, instead of the rough outline as produced by the X rays process. Prof. Hamet says the new photography is not due to cathode rays, but to a new force of a magnetic nature.

A FORECAST

Of the British Case in the Venezuela Boundary Dispute.

LONDON, March 5.—The Daily News Thursday publishes a column forecast of the British case in the Venezuela dispute, from which the following is taken:

The strength of the British case lies in the abundant historical proof of British possession of the whole of the disputed territory and much that besides before Venezuela existed. The results of a search of the Spanish archives will be likely to prove a surprise to both Venezuela and the United States, and will be of great interest to students of history. It is proved by the clearest of documentary evidence that the first settlement of the Spaniards on the Orinoco was made in 1596, and was organized with the object of forestalling the arrival of Sir Walter Raleigh, who had been surveying the regions, and had not concluded to return and settle the republic in regard to the founding of the Dutch West India is also a direct consequence of British contention. The greatest surprise for Venezuela will be the publication of secret papers exposing the intrigue between Spain and Portugal in 1850 having for its object the driving out of the Dutch or of the hemming them in.

If the Dutch were not in possession of the News, where was the necessity for intriguing to get them out.

The News intimates that the negotiations of the limits upon which Venezuela now bases her title was the outcome of this intrigue. The paper also gives details of subsequent matters which prove, according to the British contention, the government's right of conquest over both the Spanish and Dutch, and concludes:

Upon this part of the case the government mainly relies. It diminishes the helps of the long diplomatic correspondence onwards and shows that Lord Salisbury really occupied a strong position on historical ground.

SEÑOR ELDUAYEN,

Spanish Minister of Foreign Affairs, Resigns—The Duke of Tetuan Will Succeed Him.

MADRID, March 5.—Senor Elduayen, who was recently appointed minister of foreign affairs in succession to the duke of Tetuan, has resigned. A meeting of the cabinet was held Wednesday evening at which Senor Elduayen announced that he had tendered his resignation because it was considered desirable that the same minister who begins negotiations with the United States and other countries, in respect to Cuba, should complete them. It is understood that the duke of Tetuan will succeed him, and that he will take oath of office Thursday.

At the meeting it was decided that the universities should be closed for the present. The ministers also agreed to an unlimited credit for the purchase of artillery, and to call for recruits of naval infantry and sailors.

THE CABINET

Is Not in Favor of Recognizing the Cubans as Belligerents.

WASHINGTON, March 5.—It is believed now in certain circles that the president and his cabinet are strongly opposed to the present recognition of the belligerency of the Cuban patriots, and to any declaration concerning their independence as embodied in recent congressional resolutions.

It is understood that, judged by these tests, the administration does not think the present stage of affairs in Cuba justifies any change in the attitude of the government. Its function is to act and not to express feeling.

STUDENTS RIOT.

They Parade in Rome Shouting "Down With Crispi!"

Five Thousand Men and Two Generals Killed in the Battle.

The Defeat of the Italian Army Was Complete—Operations in Abyssinia Will Have to Be Suspended Until Reinforcements Can Be Hurried Forward.

ROME, March 5.—Nothing but the terrible defeat of the Italians at Abbacirina is talked of in the cafes and other public places. The Shoans are said to have been well armed with modern rifles and cannons, and the entire force opposed to the Italians is estimated to have been over 50,000 men.

The defeat of the Italians was complete. The Italian army was divided into three columns under Gens. Albertone, Arimondi and Darbomida, with a brigade under Gen. Ellena, as a reserve. They captured the passes leading to Adowa, the capital of Timre, and Gen. Albertone's column then advanced on Abbacirina. It was soon afterward attacked by the Shoan army and compelled to retreat. The other columns were unable to render him any assistance, as they were shortly afterward engaged in defending themselves against large numbers of the enemy, and eventually retired behind Belica.

According to the correspondent in Africa of the Popolo Romano, half the Italian artillery and all the ammunition and provisions were lost.

Other advices report that 5,000 of the Italian soldiers engaged in the battle were killed, and that among them are Gens Albertone and Darbomida, who commanded two of the three columns. The number of wounded is not yet stated.

Bands of students began parading the streets, shouting "Down with Crispi!" but they were promptly dispersed by the police.

The probability seems to be that Gen. Baldissera will have to suspend operations for some time, while awaiting reinforcements from Italy, although, including the troops killed, the Italian force at the disposal of Italy in that part of Africa is now about thirty battalions of infantry, five battalions of the famous Bersaglieri riflemen, probably the best infantry in the Italian army; about 1,000 Alpine riflemen, about 1,000 ordinary riflemen; 10 battalions of artillery, making about 60 pieces, and some 2,000 men; two quick-firing batteries, 12 guns and 400 men; six mortars with 200 men; three companies of engineers; three baggage trains with about 1,500 men—or about 40,000 in all—in addition to the native troops, numbering about 6,000 men, which raise the entire force to some 45,000 men.

Gen. Baratieri Relieved of His Command. ROME, March 5.—A royal decree bearing the date of March 3, has been promulgated relieving Gen. It is officially announced that a decree dated February 23, appointed Gen. Baldissera commander of the Italian forces in Africa, with full civil and military powers.
